11:30am- meeting brought to order

Introductions were made and an announcement that Jessica Jones was expecting a new baby in October was made.

Antonia Sawyer read off the votes for minute record- the name change vote came back 13 yes votes from members, 2 yes votes from non-members with only 8 needed to reach majority. The new name is "Miami County Systems Of Care".

11:40a- February, March and April Minutes were voted in by motion of Debi Wallick and a second by Susan Morris; majority vote in favor of adoption.

11:45a- remedy Live data was discussed and the coalition voiced ideas around what steps to take next.

-perception of teens in PHS is that substance abuse and alcohol is the main issue (72% reported)

-Sexual assault, rape, body image are of concern

-we need to teach teens to report sexual assault

-we need to define abuse

-we need constant education around abuse

- funding has been applied for to pay for "Sources Of Strength" EBP in PHS.

-How do we address suicide with kids AND parents

-United way and SOC have collaboration meeting next week to further address the youth needs.

-Bridgett would like to target younger kids

-Al's pals is no pre-school but nothing in 1-5 grade

-Life Skills in 6th grade and hopefully 7 & 8 next year

-Youth survey data may be helpful

12:00pm- Antonia suggest the group consider a summer event around suicide, etc. for the parents.

The poverty simulation was discussed and SOC was encouraged to register as a volunteer. No one under 18 can participate.

12:15p- SOC decided on an interagency fair to help us learn about one another, and share SOC as a whole to other agencies.

12:25- Brian Van Camp shared idea about MAT support group, Lisa Boothby explained what MAT is and how it is harm reduction on self and community members.

12:30p- Michele Mongosa discussed "Recovery matters in Peru" walk. Invited SOC to have a table to share word about "Through the Trees" walk in September. June 2, 2018 @ 9am.

12:35p- Heidi Wright and Jennifer Lombard discussed IYI event June 6, 2018 about youth and human trafficking. Link and flyers available on FB.
